

Internet Acceptable Use Policy

Wabash Communications reserves the sole and unconditional right to immediately and without prior notice to Customer refuse, suspend or terminate Internet services to anyone and to remove any material or information that in Wabash's sole discretion violates this Acceptable Use Policy, regardless of Customer's or any User's knowledge or intent of such violation.

- It is not acceptable to use WIN internet service for illegal purposes.
- It is not acceptable to use WIN internet Service to transmit threatening, obscene, objectional, or harassing material including without limitation any transmissions constituting or encouraging conduct that would constitute a criminal offense, give rise to civil liability, or otherwise violate any local, state, national or international law.
- It is not acceptable to use WIN internet service so as to interfere with or disrupt network users, services, or equipment. Disruptions include, but are not limited to, distribution of unsolicited advertising, propagation of computer "worms" and viruses, using the network to make or attempt to make unauthorized entry into any other machine accessible via the network, and sustained high volume network traffic which substantially hinders other customer's use of the network.
- It is not acceptable to use WIN internet service to download, upload, post, publish, transmit, reproduce, distribute or participate in the transfer or sale, or any way exploit and information, or other material, obtained through the Internet which is protected by copyright or other proprietary rights or derivative works with respect thereto, without obtaining permission of the copyright owner or right holder.
- It is not acceptable for changes in the equipment configuration to be made by anyone other than a WIN or WTCI employee.

- WIN reserves the right , at its sole discretion, to modify the Acceptable use Policy from time to time.
- WIN will review alleged violations of applicable Acceptable Use Policies on a case-by-case basis.

Violations of these policies may result in immediate termination of Access.
